IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO BE IN A ROOM WITH LOCAL DESIGNER Jan Kyle and not feel her energy. Bright, beautiful and vivacious, her enthusiasm for her work is contagious as she talks about her own home and those of her clients. Kyle designed her Westwood home for her and her husband, veterinarian Wayne Hunthausen, more than 20 years ago. "We're doing some renovating, but the basic design has held up," Kyle says. Indeed, the space is a beautiful haven for two very busy professionals, but also an elegant venue for entertaining. "We like to entertain, and we do when we can, but we are both busy with work and love to travel."
